

SEVEN DEADLY SINS

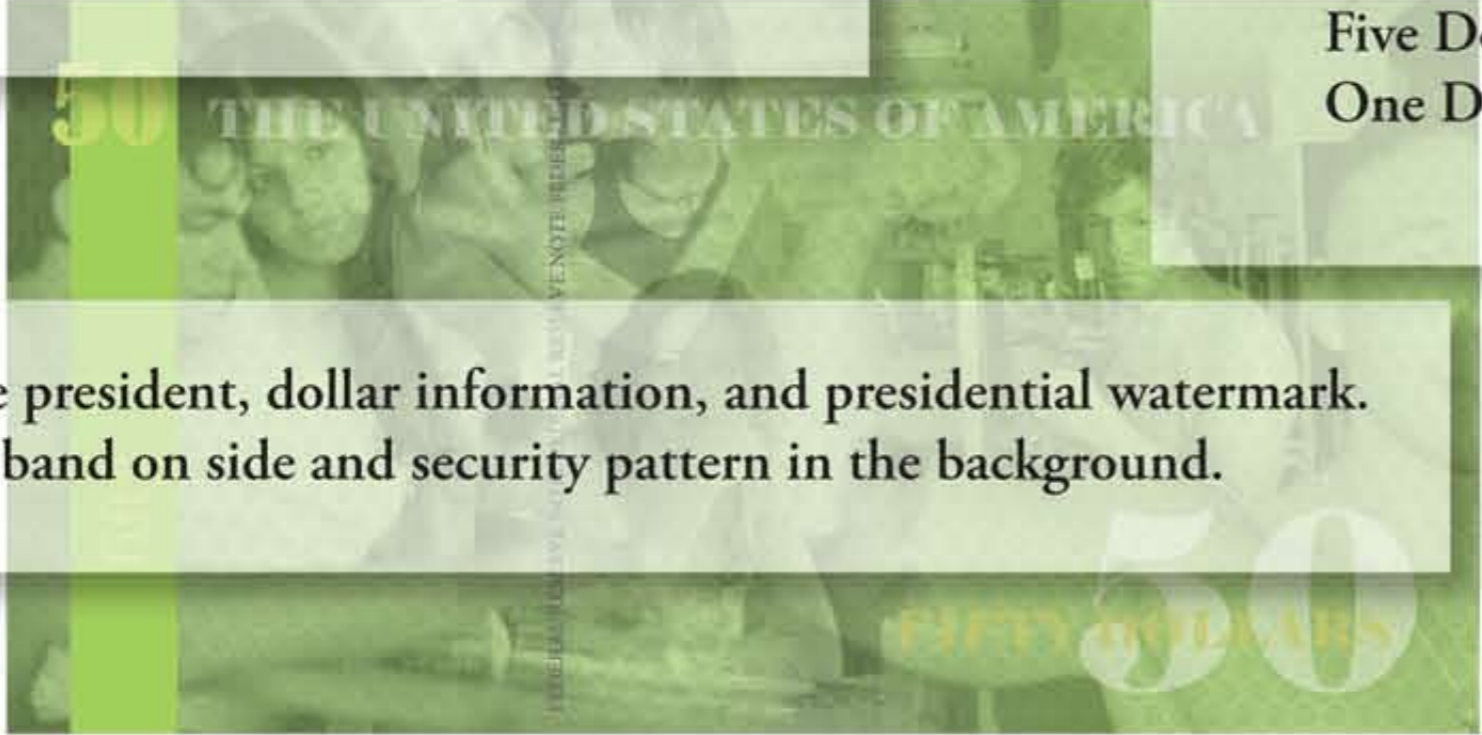

PRESIDENTS: Each president is chosen based on the sin.
 Reagan=greed for the time of his term
 Madison=sloth for taking the longest vacation in presidential history
 Tyler=envy because he was a vice president who became president
 Bush=wrath because war on Iraq
 Nixon=pride because the scandal of Watergate
 Clinton=lust because of his affair with Monica Lewinski
 Taft=gluttony for being the heaviest president in history

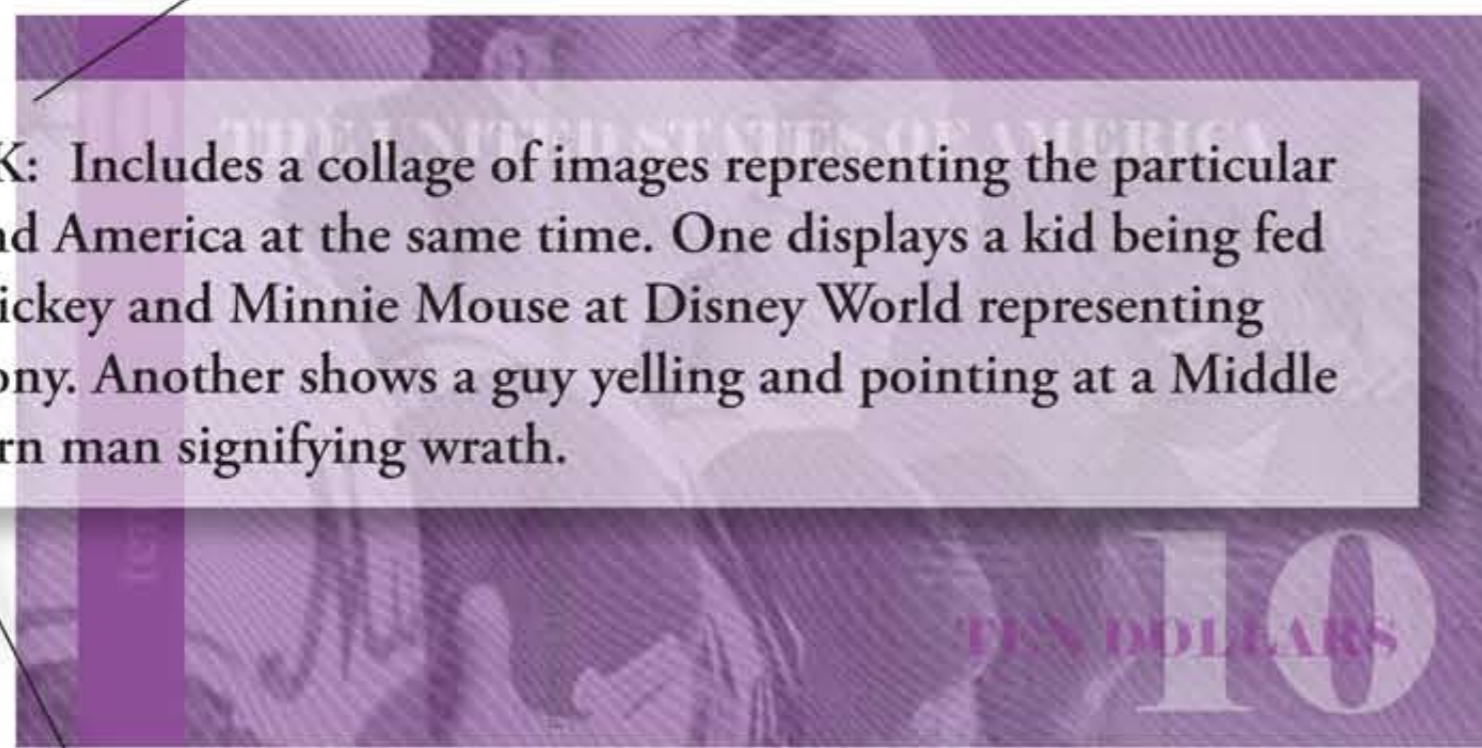

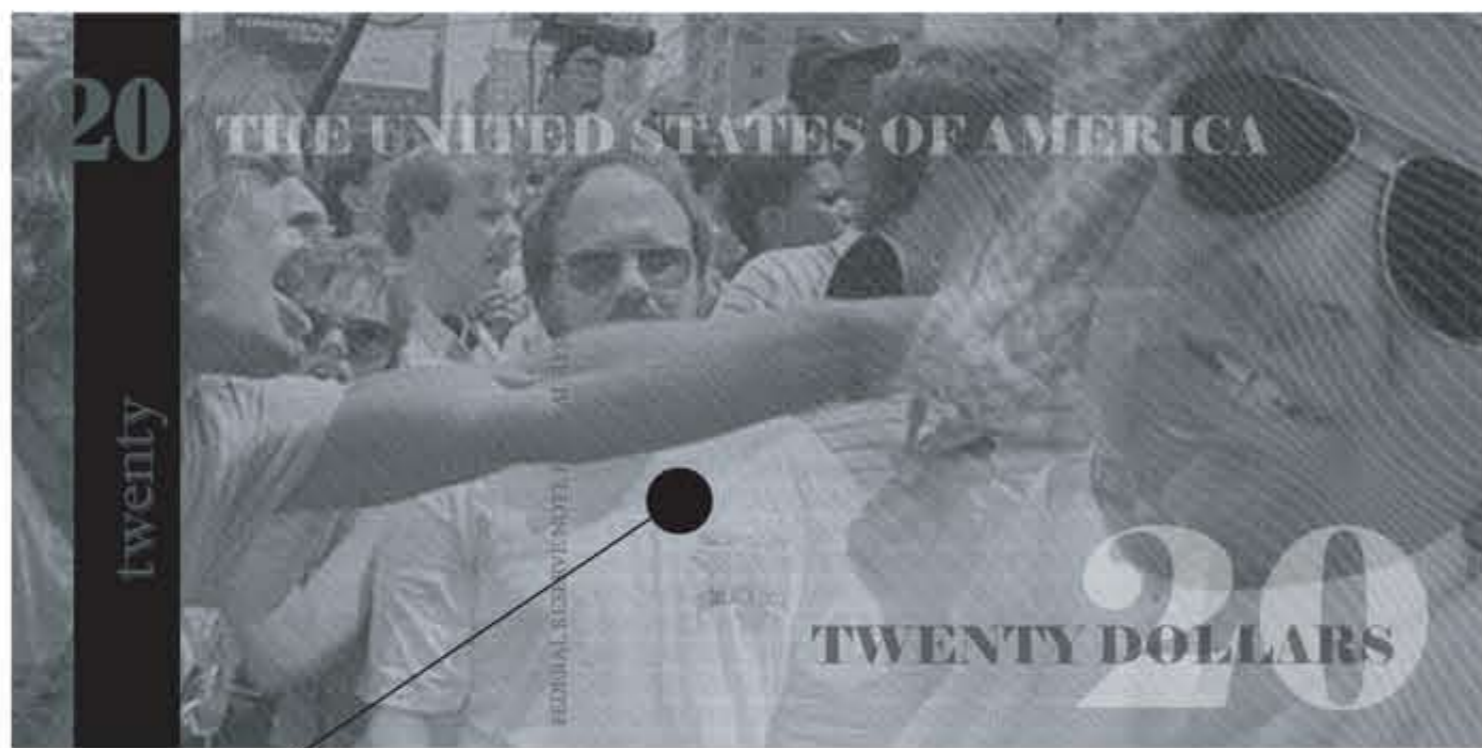

COLOR: Chosen based on color meaning
 Dark green=greed symbolizing the color of money
 Dark blue=sloth due to its calming abilities
 Yellow green=envy
 Black=wrath symbolizing death and evil
 Purple=pride for its noticeable presence
 Red=lust representing passion and romance
 Yellow=gluttony similar to McDonald's yellow

SPECIAL FEATURES: When magnified the pattern on the front of the bills becomes symbols signifying the sin and representing American culture or history.
 Five Hundred Dollars - enron logo
 One Hundred Dollars - TV guide
 Fifty Dollars - Entertainment tonight logo
 Twenty Dollars - CNN logo for mostly broadcasting war and negative issues
 Ten Dollars - Proud to be an American logo
 Five Dollars - Playboy bunny logo
 One Dollar - McDonald's logo

FRONT: Includes the president, dollar information, and presidential watermark. Also includes security band on side and security pattern in the background.

BACK: Includes a collage of images representing the particular sin and America at the same time. One displays a kid being fed by Mickey and Minnie Mouse at Disney World representing gluttony. Another shows a guy yelling and pointing at a Middle Eastern man signifying wrath.

