

"Humanity is not forever chained to this planet and our visions go rather further than that and our opportunities are unlimited."
 — Neil Armstrong

This collection of bills represents the American ideal of exploration. Space discovery throughout American history inspires an optimism and pride that our country currently lacks. With this idea in mind, I created a series in which each bill is based upon a significant event in the timeline of American space travel. The imagery included is intended to rejuvenate that sense of optimism. The people featured on these bills are heroes who represent hope and call on Americans to reach...
